

Historic, Archive Document

Do not assume content reflects current scientific knowledge, policies, or practices.

97
62,39

The liabilities of the Highlands Nursery, Kawana, North Carolina, having been satisfied in full, the entire property including the largest stock of well-grown hardy native American Plants in existence, has been re-deeded to Mr. Harlan P. Kelsey, the proprietor, by his late assignee, Mr. Thomas F. Parker.

Mr. Kelsey has opened an office at 1123 Tremont Building, Boston, with every facility for handling business to his clients' best advantage, and to which address all correspondence should be sent.

Stock will be shipped direct from Highlands Nursery, in Western North Carolina.

As heretofore a specialty will be made of growing and collecting Rhododendrons, Azaleas, Kalmias, Hemlocks and plants of this class, in wholesale quantities,—the leading Parks, Cemeteries and Nurseries of America having been satisfactorily supplied in the past with hundreds of thousands of plants.

Mr. Kelsey is well-known as the introducer and supplier of the universally used and popular decorative greens of which the florist trade in this country and Europe consume many millions annually, and contracts for any quantity can be executed promptly in the customers' interest.

GALAX LEAVES and LEUCOTHÆ SPRAYS,

An exchange of Catalogs, Botanical Lists, &c., is desired.

Please note specially new address:—

HARLAN P. KELSEY,

1123 Tremont Building,

Boston, Mass.

CABLE ADDRESS,
"KELMONT, BOSTON.

Sept. 7th, 1897.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The purpose of this notice is to inform you that the following information has been furnished to the public by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, in response to a request made by the public under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

The following information has been furnished to the public by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, in response to a request made by the public under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

The following information has been furnished to the public by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, in response to a request made by the public under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

The following information has been furnished to the public by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, in response to a request made by the public under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

The following information has been furnished to the public by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, in response to a request made by the public under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

GALAX LEAVES and LENCOTHE SPRAYS

The following information has been furnished to the public by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, in response to a request made by the public under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

The following information has been furnished to the public by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, in response to a request made by the public under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

The following information has been furnished to the public by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, in response to a request made by the public under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

The following information has been furnished to the public by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, in response to a request made by the public under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.

The following information has been furnished to the public by the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Land Management, in response to a request made by the public under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, 5 U.S.C. 552.